

Lee Somerville, RDH, MS

Manager, Professional Education Northeast

lee.somerville@philips.com

Territory: CT, MA, ME, NH, NJ, NY, PA*, RI, VT (*Except Philadelphia & York)

Lee graduated from the dental hygiene program at Cape Cod Community College and from Northeastern University, MA, with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Health Science. She received a Master of Science in Dental Public Health from Boston University School of Graduate Dentistry. She has over 20 years in private practice experience.

She has been an instructor at Cape Cod Community College for over 20 years and has taught freshman and sophomore clinic, radiology lab and didactic courses. As coordinator of the extramural program at the college, she has supervised students in providing free clinical services to school children, special needs adult patients and nursing home patients on Cape Cod, concentrating on the underserved population.